THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ANANDRAO VITHOBA ADSUL) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) At present States are not empowered to levy tax on services. Therefore, as an effort to enhance the tax receipts of the States, the Union Government has introduced a Bill in the Lok Sabha viz., "Constitution (95th Amendment Bill) 2003". The proposed constitutional amendment would enable the States to augment their revenue receipts.

In order to supplement the effort of the State Governments towards fiscal consolidation, Government of India (GoI) has created "State Fiscal Reforms Facility (2000-01 to 2004-05)" for incentivising them to undertake fiscal reforms to improve their finances in the medium term, inter-alia, aiming at reducing their revenue deficit and gross fiscal deficit over the reform period, by way of improving tax and non-tax receipts and reprioritization of expenditure.
